Foreign Exchange

Lujza Fajtova

Who remembers having their first taco from Taco Bell or french fries from McDonalds? Lujza sure does! This foreign exchange student is from Piestam, Slovakia. She happens to be our only foreign exchange student this year at Vaca High. Lujza is a wonderful eighteen year old girl who loves hanging out with her American BFF, Allie Krohn. Lujza has visited a lot of places while in California but her favorite city has to be San Francisco. Her overall favorite beach is Santa Cruz. Lujza doesn't only speak Slovakian and English, but also speaks German! Since coming to America she has realized that her love for Beyonce is deeper than she thought. She is a huge fan and Lujza hopes to meet her in person one day. Lujza has made many friends even though her time here is short. We know she enjoys the memories she has made with many of her fellow senior classmates at Vacaville High School! She will be missed when she leaves and we hope that where ever her future goals might lead her she will end up in America once again. Good Luck, Lujza!

Dayton Campbell

We remember loving you before actually getting to see you, hold you, or kiss you! Words cannot describe the overwhelming blessing of our second Son! There are so many different paths to follow, but you didn't follow, you made your own ~ You can light up the room with your smile, share your contagious laugh, and warm people hearts with your love and loyalty.

A wiseman asked God, "What's the meaning of life?"

God replied, "The meaning of life is to find your gift... the purpose of Life is to give it away!"

Dayton, You were our gift and now it's time we share you with the world. Continue on your OWN path and make great things happen. Thank you for becoming the man we knew you could be... AND MORE!

Always stay true to your God, yourself and your family.

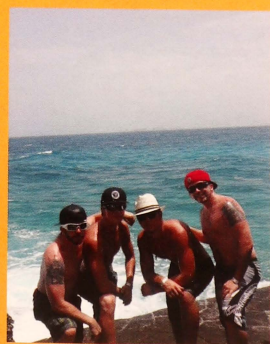

We will always be here for you.

We love you to the Moon...

And BACK!

With Love Always,

Mom, Dad, Faith and Bryce

Joe Sanfilippo

Dear Joe,

When I think of the love and pride we have for you, I'm filled with a warmth that I think only a parent can understand.

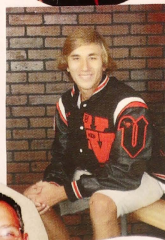

Through your intelligence and outstanding work ethic you have had a great high school experience and I know that that will follow you to college and beyond.

What I want for you is to be ambitious, but kind. Take risks, wisely.

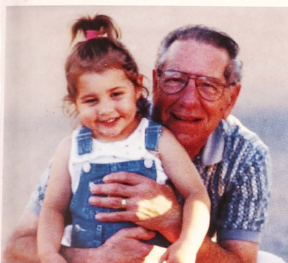

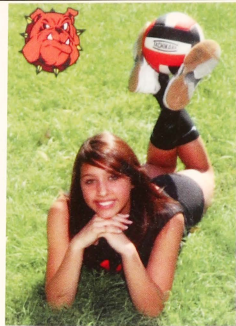

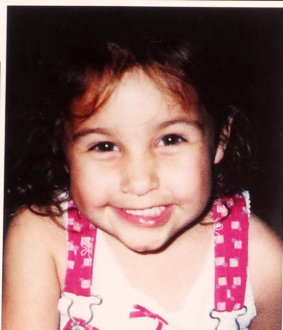

What I want the world to know is that, while they see a smart, funny young man well prepared for the future, This is what I see.

I love you son.

Renee Morris

Congratulations to our beautiful daughter Renee! We are extremely proud of the woman you have become. Go confidently in the direction of your dreams. Live the life you imagined. If you can imagine it, you can achieve it; if you can dream it, you can become it. As you start your journey for independence, don't let the noise of other's opinions drown out your own inner voice and most importantly, have the courage to follow your heart and intuition.

Dear Hayden,

Since the day you were born you have been a complete joy to us. Even as a little guy you were so full of energy, always having a positive attitude, curious how things worked, ready to tackle new feats (our lil' Dare Devil), very secure and independent, funny and witty (class clown a lil' too much), hard working, and a blessing to your family. All these traits God has bestowed in you, and we know that he has great plans for you. Stay focused, faith filled, and true to who you are and the possibilities are endless. We are so PROUD of you son and can't wait to see where your journey takes you. We will always be here for you and cheering you on.

Courtney Curtis

Courtney,

As we look back remembering the day you were born, determination was just you. It took us promising you your first two wheel bicycle to get you to sleep in your own bed [at six years old]! We know you were not ready to start school at four even if it would have been only a couple months until you turned five, so we waited one more year. Watching you grow through the years brings us to your high school graduation. Now eighteen and very ready to leave home to start another chapter of your life in college. There are not enough words to describe how very proud of you we are! You are our precious little girl who has grown to be true to yourself, be a good friend to others and keep your goals at the forefront of your mind. Enjoy all college has to offer while keeping up on your studies. Above all, always remember how much you are loved, and know that you will always be our bug! May God bless you and always keep you safe.

Always remember anything is possible through hard work & perseverance. We wish you an abundance of happiness & success in everything you do. Never forget we're here for you, cheering you on, your #1 Fans!!

Congratulations! We love you,

Mom, Allie & Janie

Lauren Michelle Davenport

Lauren - You were:

- the one to jump off high dive at age four...
- the one who would point your snow skis straight down the hill and race down the ski slope arms straight out singing at the top of your lungs...
- the one who would beat the rest of the family during our Friday night puzzle-building contests...
- the one who went on the "Tower of Terror" at Disneyland at age five...
- the one who beat the middle school basketball team as a sixth grader...
- the one who won the league volleyball championship even though your coaches got lost and didn't make it until the last game of the set...
- the one who would sink the 50-foot putt to win the family Thanksgiving Day golf game, even though you hadn't touched a club in over a year...

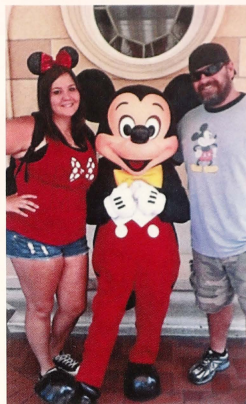

All of this without any anxiety or fear and a huge smile with the biggest dimples and blue eyes we'd ever laid eyes on! Our Lauren, not your stereotypical "middle child" - but always the one who holds us all together and raising the bar! You've made us so very proud not only because of your accomplishments, but because of the young lady you've become. Your strong will and independence have always been your strengths, but don't forget it's okay to lean on others when you face challenges in life. Most importantly, never ever forget your faith, as that is what you can always rely on to see you through! We love you so much and honestly don't know how we'll ever survive without you as you go off to college. Until then, we will cherish every minute of your love and laughter....

Love you,

Dad, Mom, Erin and Ted

Kaley Ciraulo

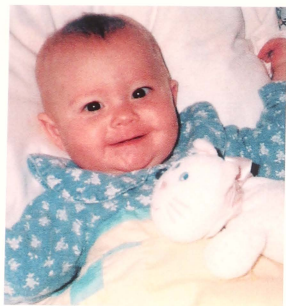

Kaley,

We are all so fortunate to have been blessed with a daughter, step-daughter, sister and step-sister as you. Your kind and loving heart has brought such joy and inspiration to us all. As you close this chapter of your life and open the next, always remember that we are all behind you. We love you and are so proud of you.

All our love,

Mom, Dad & Michelle, Taylor and Sidney

Megan Bull

As a baby, she smiled, whistled and slept through the night.

She is true blessing to her parents and a treasure to her brother, Jordan.

By the time she could walk and talk Megan wanted to do everything everyone else was doing.

Nothing could hold her back.

She has tried nearly everything: baseball, surfing, rock climbing, skim boarding, horseback riding gymnastics, diving, swimming with the dolphins, skiing, and more.

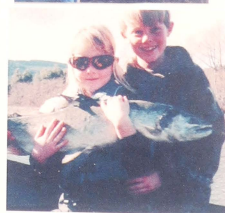

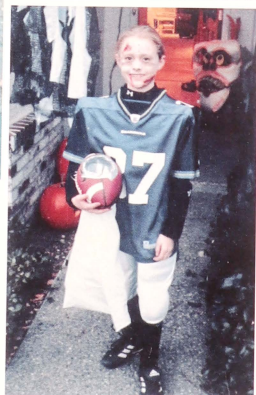

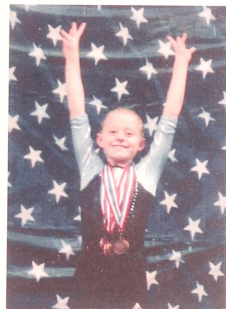

Megan meets all challenges head on.

You have become a smart, beautiful, determined young woman.

We are so proud to call you our daughter.

We hope all of of your dreams come true. And know we are always here for you.

Love, Mom and Dad

Megan,

All your life, I've watched you grow and

I'm incredibly proud of who you've become. I've enjoyed all these years; from the little girl in the catcher's gear I'd play catch with to the young woman with the imaginative sense of humor.

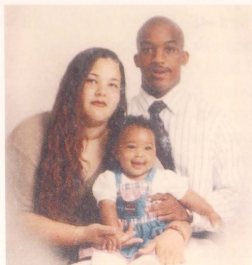

Even though you'll be off to college, you'll still always be my little sister.

You've got a lot to look forward to ahead of you and I know you'll make the most of it.

Love,

Jordan

To My Baby Girl,

Through these years you have made me the proudest mother in the world and I am proud to call you my daughter. You have grown from a little girl exploring the world to a mature young woman focused on your dreams. I hope you continue to focus and grow and blossom into a mature woman who knows what she wants out of life. I am always here for you and will always have your back through thick and thin. I love you with all my heart because you know what my heart beat sounds like from the inside. The nine months I carried you was the best nine months I have ever experienced. Congratulations that's mama's baby!

My Baby,

The first time I held you I remember telling your mother, "She feels like a warm loaf of bread". Now, just a mere eighteen years later, you're graduating high school. We've have many ups and downs on your journey, but through it all, I've always supported you. Slowly, but surely you have blossomed from a shy, insecure kid to an intelligent, responsible woman. Watching you grow has truly been a highlight of my life. Congratulations on closing this chapter in the book of your life. I am so proud of you and I hope your future chapters are even brighter and better. I love you with all my heart.

Najee

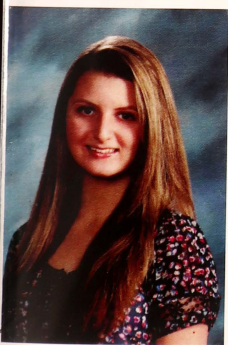

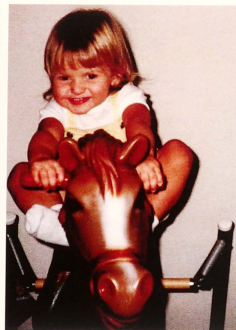

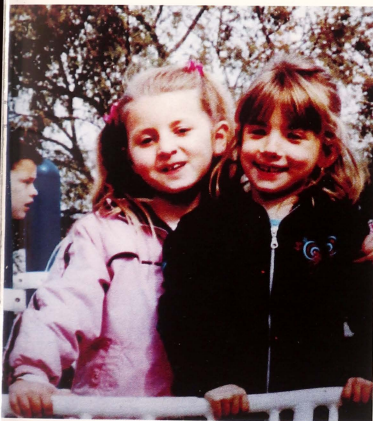

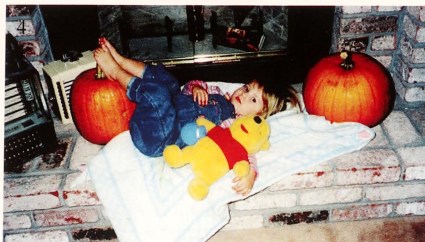

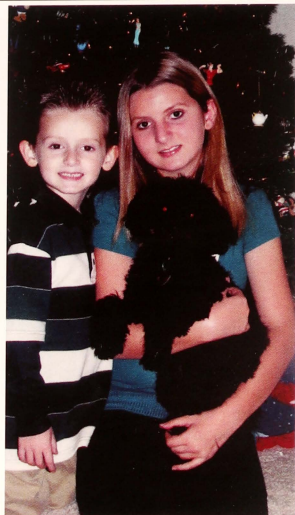

While looking up at the stars and moon,
We realize that you grew up too soon.
We remember the day you were born,
And now look at you all big and grown.
We remember your first day of school,
You were too scared to break a rule.
You made us proud throughout 6th grade,
We told you that there was no reason to be afraid.

In junior high, you gave us a hard time,
But we stuck by you through dark and shine.
While in high school, you had your fun,
From the security guards you would run.
After a while you settled down,
Many doors open for you today,
We realize that you are going the right way.
You made us proud throughout the years,
As we think about it, we burst in tears.
Truly, no words can explain what we feel.
Just know that what we just said is real.

*Love Mom & Dad

Chelsea Lopez

Chelsea,

You have grown up so fast. Time is truly priceless and can never be replaced. I am so proud of you every day for what you have done and continue to do with your education and life. As you go on with your future just remember life is full of ups and downs. Although the downs can be painful they will help you grow stronger. I want you to know I will always be by your side in the good and times and in the struggles. Remember to embrace each and every day and not look to far ahead. Words alone cannot express how proud of you I am or how much your brother and I love you.

Love,

Tad & Chase

Ashley Rewick

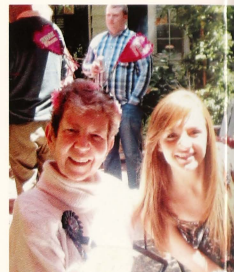

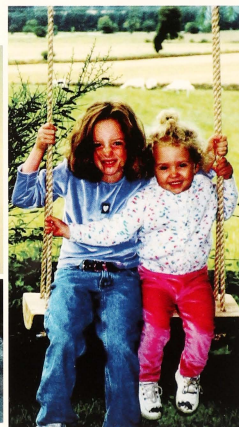

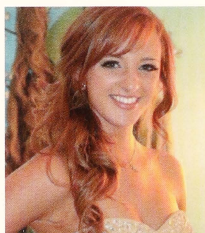

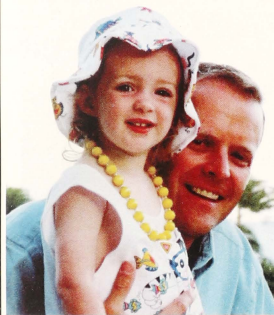

Ashley,

In what seems like the blink of an eye, you've gone from a blessing that couldn't wait to see the world, to riding a bike, to what you are now- a beautiful, compassionate and strong young woman. It has been a privilege and an honor to watch you grow to become such an incredible person. I'm very proud of you Ashley, and you deserve the best life has to offer.

"It's time to trust your instincts, close your eyes and Leap"
Everyone deserves a chance to fly.

*Love,
Dad*

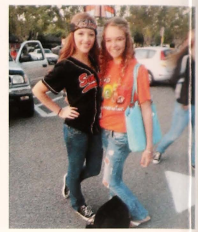

Dear Ashley aka. BadAshh,

It is hard to believe 18 years ago I was blessed with you coming into my life--tiny, but strong! From the first instant I saw your beautiful eyes to this very moment I am so proud of you and blessed to have you as my daughter. You lead by example to your two younger sisters (whether you like it or not!) and I appreciate your support and friendship you have given me through the years as well. If John and I were asked to describe you in five words it would be easy--thoughtful, charismatic, loving, intelligent and beautiful. The qualities you possess reflect the way you have started the first stages of your life and we are sure these will continue to grow and make you into a confident and successful woman. Congratulations sweet Ashley and we are excited to see your life journey unfold going forward! "Instead of waiting for the storm to pass, learn to dance in the rain" <3

*Love you,
Momma & John*

The household is going to seem so quiet with you away at college! We know you will enjoy it and grow into the person you will become as an adult, but it is still hard. Here's to all the times we fought over who did dishes last, whose sweater you were wearing and what show to watch on TV. We hope you don't mind if we take over your room and yes, we would love to take care of your car while you are away! In all honesty, we love you so much Ashley and are excited for your graduation!

*Sister hugs,
Taylor and Kendall*

Victoria Raygada

For Our Wonderful Vicky:

Where do we start? Maybe just by saying how lucky we are to have you - a girl who is smart, pretty, funny, ambitious, someone who loves and cares about her family, (especially her nieces and nephews), an excellent student, a good friend. You are a girl who will go far in life, because you are capable of doing anything.

We are very proud of you, and we love you so much.

Mom and Dad

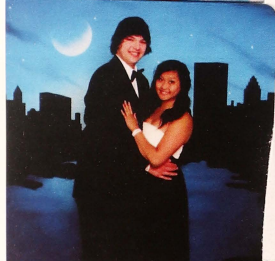

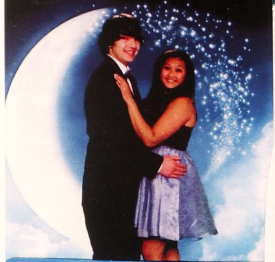

Stephanie Coffman

To Our Princess,

What a blessing to watch you grow into a beautiful young lady. Do you remember when you wanted to be a butterfly? You are now that beautiful butterfly who is ready to take flight in pursuit of your dreams. Always remember to be kind and loving. It doesn't hurt to flash your perfect smile (it cost us enough) and watch the world smile back. Be true to your convictions and have faith to always believe in yourself. We couldn't be prouder.

*Love always,
Mom & Dad*

Jamie Amber Alvarez Flores

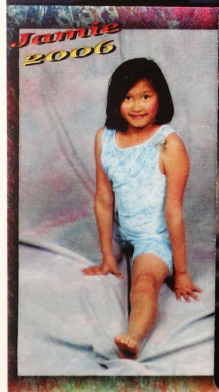

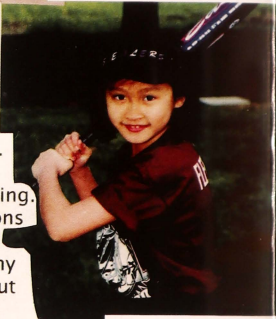

Jamie,

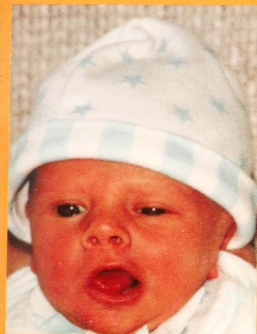

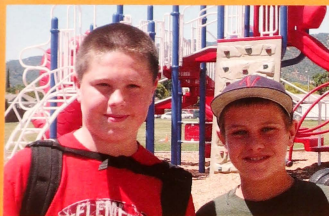

I look at you & I do see the passage of time. I see the little girl playing her doll house, running through the yard & playing on a swing. Fact is, you are older now & that the decisions you will make are your own, but you must understand that to me, you will always be my little girl. I may not carry you in my arms but I will always carry you in my heart.

We are very proud of you and your accomplishments and on your next step to college; I hope & pray that you accomplish it.
Congratulations on your Graduation!!!

2014

Congratulations Jeremy! You are an amazing young man with character which is rarely seen. Your accomplishments over the last four years are not "prizes" that you won, but rather a result of years of commitment, sacrifice, hard work and focus. More simply put...it is "the fruit of your labor". Words cannot express how proud we are of you Jeremy. Just know that we want everyone else to know ..."THATS OUR SON" *Give God the glory Jeremy! Rachel Denton

Dear Rachel,
You have always been such an immense source of joy & laughter for all of us. Your sense of humor, loyalty and the way you always see the best in everyone is to be admired. Your work ethic, whether it be in school or athletics, is second to none. All of these will serve you well in your future.

We are so proud of the way you have faced challenges and never given up. You prove everyday "It's not the size of the dog in the fight, but the size of the fight in the dog!"

As you enter the next phase in your life know that your entire family has your back. Keep God first and know we love you to the moon and back and more than all the stars in the sky...

Mom, Dad, Sarah, and Emily
"...wait for me guys!"

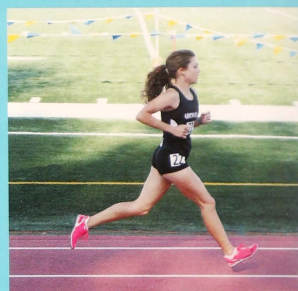

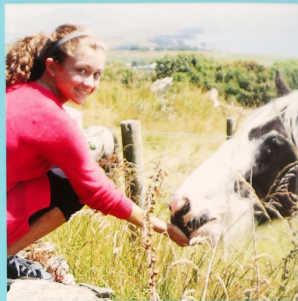

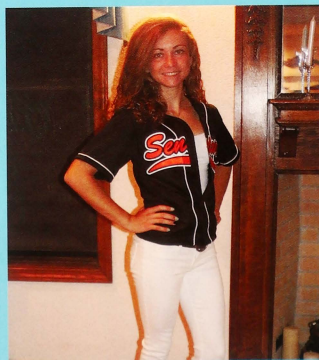

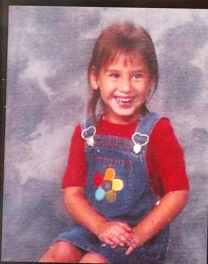

Breanna Sewell

You were born with your personality fully formed: strong-willed & purposeful, introspective & contemplative, fearless & tough with your "never let them see you cry" face you present to the world, and, of course, intelligent & inquisitive. Your first spoken, and oft repeated, phrase was: "Let meee do it!" We didn't get to read aloud to you for long because as soon as you had mastered the skill, you had no patience for being read to, you wanted to read to us. Who can forget you wanting to ride the bison in Yellowstone or insisting on hiking to the top of Angel's Landing in Zion? (And how angry you were when we wouldn't let you go with Dad & Tyler because you were only 8 and had no tread on your sneakers.)

You're naturally gifted both intellectually and athletically, but the reason you excel at everything you try your hand at is because you always give 100%, are incredibly disciplined and have a strong work ethic. You've earned your successes, baby girl! Believe in yourself as much as everyone else believes in you and there will be nothing you can't accomplish. You are an absolute force to be reckoned with! We love you very, very much! ~ Mom, Dad & Tyler

We hope you dream big, live like there is no tomorrow, laugh hard and often and find love that completes you. Megs you are beautiful inside and out. The world is yours... and remember, a good book has no ending!!

Love,
Dad, Mom, Josephine, Amanda & Molly

I've never met such a strong, faithful, and hardworking man in my life. I am so proud of everything You've overcome, and I know you will be successful in everything you do. Music has always been your passion and I hope that will never change, cause without it I would not know the Will I know today.

With all my love,

To our son, our little "chunk-a-munk" and of course -- to my best friend (Mom):

Life with you has been a roller coaster ... we never knew what to expect ... you were adventurous and always kept us on our toes. You were indeed a handful for us ... but we wouldn't have it any other way.

It has been a joy to watch you grow from our little boy to such a handsome young man. We will always remember the times we enjoyed watching all your sports events from -- T-Ball, Soccer, Football and Baseball.

Growing up wasn't always easy -- "the kid on the block who always got in trouble". Look at you now -- great grades, athletic, graduating from high school -- onto college. You brought a sense of excitement and you kept our family upbeat. When you weren't around it was so quiet -- you brought life into the house!

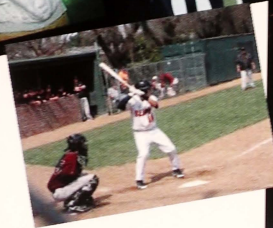

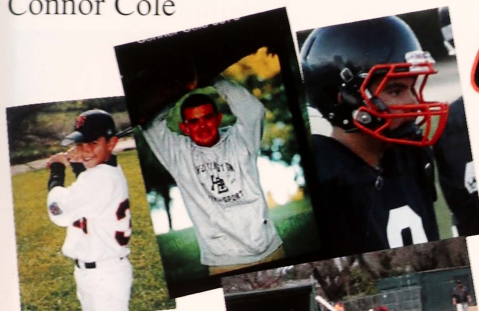

The road ahead of you will be full of twists and turns -- but we know you will accomplish your dreams and goals no matter where it takes you in your life. We will always be here for you ... never stop reaching for the stars!

Love Dad, Mom, Kyle & Princess XOXOXO

Brittney-Boo,

We are blessed to have been given the gift of such a wonderful young lady as our daughter. To watch you grow from a shy, but carefree, free-spirited baby girl to the independent, self-assured, confident and driven young woman you have become has been the greatest joy any parent could hope for. Remember that hard work and integrity in all you do will guarantee that all your dreams will become reality. We are proud of you and will be here for you even after you have spread your wings and left the nest.

Know that being all God has called you to be begins and ends in prayer. God has big plans for you and is waiting. Literally knocking at the door (Rev 3:20) in order to meet with you and talk about your future and what you need today to prepare for it. Spend time in prayer today, exercising your spiritual senses and learning to discern God's voice.

From the moment I first held you in my arms, you dazzled me with your smile, and have won many over with your intoxicating charm.

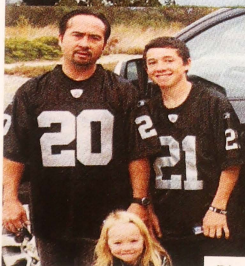

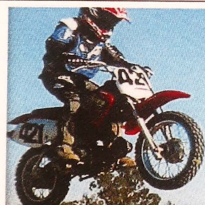

You've brought me so much happiness and some tears; I've watched you grow from a happy child to a kind and generous adolescent who seems so wise beyond his years.

In spite of the times you lost your way, I know the obstacles you have overcome, shaped the fine young man you are today.

You have so much to look forward to as you start this new chapter in your life. God has amazing plans for you, keep your eyes focused on the future and not on the strife.

I love with all my heart; you can always count on me
As forever and always, my baby you will be.

Mr. Steve Green

The Autumn of 2013 saw the passing of a great man at Vacaville High School. Steve Green was a beloved member of our school and educational community. His positive influence on many students, faculty and staff members encompasses a wide scope. Mr. Green originally came to Vaca High in the Fall of 1979 as an English teacher and Head JV Football coach. He quickly became a trusted mentor to his students and student athletes, building trust and respect. Steve Green was an intelligent, caring man of integrity. His death caused everyone who had known him to pause and reflect on his life. Most had memories of Steve and how he had positively affected their own lives. It was difficult to process the loss of Coach Green. He was such a large part of Vaca High, an icon of our school. The effects on the numerous lives he touched will last for a long time. Even now when one leaves a rally one can almost hear Mr. Green's voice shouting, "Who ya rootin' for?" We will miss you, Steve.

I would like to thank everyone who has put forth the effort to make this book awesome. James, Sujenna and I found ourselves capturing moments of this amazing school year that we all have been blessed to be a part of, typing and typing, proofing and more proofing. Many times over this year the yearbook staff members have heard me say things like, "Cowgirl up and write your captions," or "I don't care what you think, you have to do it right now, your deadline is tomorrow!"

Some might say that I pushed hard or yelled a bit, but I believe my efforts have helped make this book a success. I am proud of what this book is and how far we have come. I hope that everyone who sees this yearbook likes it as much as we do!

Faith and Trust,
Brittney

Co-Editor: James Dean

I am so glad to have gotten to work with all of the amazing staff members who were in Yearbook this year. First, I would like to thank both Sujenna Griner and Ms. Anthony for the chance to be an editor this year. I also want to thank Brittney Ciraulo for helping me with all of the senior ads; without her we would not have been able to complete them in time for the deadlines to be met. In addition I want to thank all of my friends, family, and teachers for supporting me every time the yearbook made me want to break the computer I was working on! I hope that all of you love this book as much as we do. WHO YA ROOTIN' FOR????!!

Sincerely,
James Dean

My goodbye isn't so much of a goodbye as a long list of "thank yous". First off, thank you to my entire yearbook staff for finishing your pages and putting up with me all year. I know that I can be kinda tough at times. Thank you for always doing what I asked of you and picking up each other's pages when somebody couldn't do it. Secondly, thank you to Marie for always working so hard on receipts and never complaining, you're awesome! Also a huge thank you to Ms. Anthony for giving me the opportunity to be this year's editor and for backing up my crazy ideas.

Finally, my biggest thank you goes to my co-editors James and Brittney who spent countless hours at home, at lunch, after school, and going crazy helping me bring our vision to life, I seriously couldn't have done any of this without you two!!! I know you guys will create an amazing book next year. Don't stress too much, your senior year will be amazing!

Love Always,
Sujenna Griner
